A High-Impact Development Experience for Leadership Teams

Why invest in your leadership teams

Lead teams have significant impact in shaping organisational culture, creating strategy, leading and developing teams, engaging others through change and delivering bottom-line results.

When leadership teams collaborate on these things, they achieve the breakthroughs that organisations need today.

Programme outcomes

- Insight into what it takes to be a connected high-impact leadership team and what's most important for our success
- Commitment to a compelling shared purpose and focus on priorities
- Awareness of strengths, gaps and opportunities for change
- Team EQ: Insight into different styles and how to create positive influence and connections
- "Team First" mindset, positive ways of working, beliefs & behaviours
- High-Trust conversations, relationships and culture
- How to engage and partner with other teams
- Shared Development Roadmap.

Programme Framework

Note: Programme design is configured to specific client and team context and outcomes.

Best-fit solutions

We are accredited in a range of global team development solutions which create awareness of the team’s performance, potential, strengths, development areas and best ways of working:

- Insights Discovery®
- Human Synergetics® (LSI and GSI)
- DiSC Profiling®
- 360 Team Feedback Survey

We will work with your team to create their vision of success. We can also build on well-established team development models, including Lencioni’s 5B Model and Insights Discovery’s Team Framework.
